

IN NEED

Hey, listen lads, I gonna tell you the story
Was a kind of freeze-frame (spoken)
I was young, full of life
Didn't talk about the final run
Got no children, got no wife
I tell you friend I had a lot of fun
Was the time the old man came
From nowhere and not named.

Cold feelings, I called them lies
I had no reason to get blue
Sin and misery I didn't realise
Only things I saw were true
Nothing what I've done before
I had no good friends of mine
The old man led me to that door
Gave me power to define

And he said:
Just cross the line you have created
The harder it seems the stronger's your fate
But do not give up and if you fail
Start it again, it's never too late

In need – you need an other story
In need – you need a friend
In need – leave the past in glory
In need – until the end
